

IITians crack Civil Services

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Two alumni of the Indian Institute of Technology (IIT), Mandi have cracked Civil Services examination of 2019 conducted by the Union Public Service Commission (UPSC).

Anil Jhajharia, BTech, Computer Science and Engineering and Lalitesh K Meena, BTech, Electrical Engineering, have secured rank 431 and rank 689, respectively, in the exam.

Anil Jhajharia, a resident of Bassi in Sri Madhopur, Rajasthan, completed his BTech degree from IIT Mandi in 2015.

“The diverse nature of courses offered at IIT Mandi helped me not only build my technical competency but also social sensitivity, which is essential for civil services,” said Anil Jhajharia who is currently working as an Officer Trainee in the Internal Revenue Service – IT.

Lalitesh K Meena completed his BTech in Electrical Engineering from IIT Mandi in 2015. “IIT Mandi played an immense role in this achievement. I got all the support from the faculty members especially Bharat Singh Rajpurohit (Head of Department, Electrical Engineering) who often asked about my progress in studies,” said Lalitesh.