He said it was his second attempt in the UPPSC and that he also cleared the preliminary and the mains exam of the UPSC- 2020 and is due to appear in the final interview on May 28 this year.

Mohit is the son of a retired Deputy Superintendent (Public Health Department) and hails from Bahin village of the district. Mohit mentioned that he did not let himself get demoralized after he failed in the first attempt at the UPPSC and two attempts in the UPSC exam. He said that though he continued with the job for two years, he came back and joined the coaching for Civil services in 2017 and ultimately tasted success after three years.

IIT Mandi is proud of Mohit's achievements and wishes him many more successes in the future.
